ANNOUNCEMENT No. 09.05

Bang & Olufsen sound system in Mercedes-Benz SLS AMG

Today, the first result of the partnership between Bang & Olufsen and Mercedes-AMG is announced. The Bang & Olufsen BeoSound AMG sound system will be available as an option in the sports car Mercedes-Benz SLS AMG from the start of production in spring 2010. The sound system offers 11 active speakers and a total amplifier power of more than 1,000 watts.

The launch of the Bang & Olufsen BeoSound AMG sound system is expected to make a positive contribution to the Bang & Olufsen Group's development over the coming years, but it will not change the expectations for the current financial year.
