

Certified Refurbished products

What is included when I order a Certified Refurbished product?

You will receive a product with genuine B&O replacement parts, replacement parts used can be recycled parts (as needed) that has been thoroughly cleaned and inspected. Products might have minor visual flaws in the different material surfaces. Every product will come with all accessories and cables. All B&O Certified Refurbished products are packaged in a brown box and will be sent to you with free shipping and returns.